Chianti has been dry stored since 2007 in Anacortes. Commissioned in San Francisco for her first owner, the current owner bought "Chianti" in 1996 and moved her to Anacortes. After spending 10 years cruising the San Juans, she made trips up the Inside Passage to Alaska in 2006 and 2007. On returning in 2007, she was mothballed and dry stored in Anacortes until May 2017. Her owner pulled the boat out of storage, dropped the rig, Awlgrip painted the mast, replaced running rigging, had standing rigging professionally inspected, and re-stepped the refurbished spar in August 2017. The owner has decided to price the boat as a partially finished refit project. The sails are in very good condition, the engine fluids have been changed and the engine run, the mast has been refurbished, and fresh bottom paint done in Fall 2017. Her bimini and full cockpit canvas enclosure was installed in 2007 and stored inside the boat since then. .

"Chianti" needs updated electronics, teak deck bungs replaced and caulk renewed, and a new loving owner.
